She took his hand and smiled full sweet, And Listen to me, she said, Kind heaven forbid one differing word Twixt me, and him I ve wed. This land of England is my home, Thy God is also mine, But I pray thee, grant me to kneel and pray At the blessed Virgin s shrine! XIX. The quivering tears stood in her eyes, Though the smile was on her face; But not a word he answered her, Nor moved he from his place. In that pause there rose a bitter laugh On his awakened ear--The upbraiding laugh of scorn and jest, And the brave Knight shook with fear. xx. And he vowed a vow to the Spirits three, With his hand upon his sword--Then turned he to his sad Lady, Awaiting his answering word. He shuddered, and shook off her tender touch, And...
