Despite the advice of an old wooden bear, Toby's curiosity takes control and he finds himself trapped! Will he ever make it back to his Creator? Will he ever be freed? Who was that watching him from the darkness? Find out how an old Christmas ornament, a broken ribbon, and a cloud of dust bring to life a story of the Creator, His Son, and a lesson in purpose. This story / poem was written in the style of great pieces of work such as The Night Before Christmas. A great bed-time story to be shared and enjoyed by all ages. Written by a Christian author who has dealt with the challenges of diabetes from birth, this story builds upon his life lessons that we are all valuable, despite our circumstances, and that sometimes it takes a struggle to help us understand our strengths.
