

faded miracles

By Helen Richardson

AuthorHouse. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 140 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in. Faded Miracles gives an account of a life surrendered to Christ, and sincere devotion to a family. Desiring to know God since childhood, reveals the timing of the Holy Spirit. The overwhelming love for children proves to be the motivating factor for seeking God. The occurrence of a life-changing experience explains the surmounted hunger and thirst after righteousness for the following thirty-nine years (to date). Faded Miracles gives an account of one treading through the barrenness of a serious health encounter. An ovarian cancer survivor for six years, presently confronted with the multitude of symptoms that accompany an incurable liver disorder. This book gives a clear record of a walk through continued wilderness. Documented, life-threatening situations dictated previous years. When extended life seems a myth, Jesus whispers that long life is satisfied. Illness continually shouts suggestions, and temporal shadows smolder while hoping to detain. In times there has been a minute flicker of despair, but cannot catch one off guard. God's mercy quickly sends a flare of correction. Each time a prayer is directed upward, the Father's heart is pained, bringing instant rescue screaming, with hope again sustained. Let this record show that Jesus shines much brighter than the...
