Office of Publication--Kingston, Ontario. EDITORIAL. READERS of the Quarterly have no doubt learned from the daily press that representations have been made by the Faculty and its friends to the Ontario Government for a grant in aid of Medical Education in Kingston. On Dec. Qth last a deputation waited upon Mr. Whitney and his ministers and asked that a School of Biology and Public Health should be established in connection with Queens under a chartered Board of Governors. 75, 000 was asked to erect a suitable building and 7000 a year to maintain and equip it and to pay for work done for the Provincial Board of Health. Our claim for consideration is based, first of all, upon the fact that a large sum has recently been granted to promote medical education in Toronto. As this is a departure from the educational policy of the past, the Faculty of Queens naturally asks for proportionate consideration for what has been done in Kingston for the past fifty years. The School had...
