Treat life. cherish life. care for life. please. You will become a great mother. your child will return to you the greatest comfort in your old age. Executive Summary about writing a book. I think there are basically three different ways and realm. Is a pen to write. write something even the brain have not been. and sometimes write things even do not know what is. let alone believe. The second is to use the brain to write. write something to justify herself. sometimes no fat people. but only or a means of livelihood. Third of his life writing. he wrote things may not be so perfect. is not so careful. but it is their faith. The third Writing is a highest form of writing. all the great works of life writing this book is the case. Over the years more and more concerned about the people of the mother's education. family education. more and more life to write works. I think that as long as the people engaged in this education can so contribute their strength. mother education will become a prairie fire in China rapidly gaining in popularity.
