The heroine of that dark and dangerous period won distinction for her remarkable courage. Her general fitness for emergencies was recognized and lauded by the French military doctors, after which she was promoted interne of the hospital, manager of the dispensary and clinical teacher of all the native medical students. She remained in Africa five years. Returning to France Dr. Michel became externe pupil of the famous Professor Crozat. She worked in his Maternity Hospital and was credited and recommended by him to the faculty of medicine in Paris. Dr. Michel came to America in 1893 and taught at a training school until she entered the medical college under the preceptory of Professor R...
