Master of the Selene. Mr. W. Robertson. The fine old ship was found in excellent condition, all the docks sweet and clean, and the rigging looking smart, though it is probable that some of the spars and masts may be post duty. Tue arrangements on board are excellent, with one exception, viz., the hick of suitable desks on ihe school-deck. The steam launch has provided a great boon duringan exceptionally rough winter, which sorely tried the ship s boats. Drawing is taught on the. school-deck, and i- good considering difficulties. The arrangements for: nautical instruction continue as before. The boys gain practical experience in keeping the...
