Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Story of St. Paul s Parish Toronto On being asked by the Very Reverend Dean Hand to take up the compilation of the history of St. Paul s Parish, the undersigned made use of material gathered for years simply as a hobby. As some of this was the outcome of personal interviews with men of prominence who have since passed away, the information thus gained might otherwise have been lost forever. He also made use of other sources of information, a detailed list of which will be found at the end of this volume. When the end of Chapter XII. had been reached, sickness delayed the work for some time. On resuming his task, the writer found that part of Chapter XIII., all of Chapters XIV., XV., XVI., XVII., XIX., XX had been prepared, so that he can claim but editorship for this part of the work. A deep debt of gratitude is due the Very Rev. Dean Harris and Rev. M. J. Oliver, C. S. B., who read the proofs of the work; also of the clergy of the Cathedral of Kingston; of the parishes of St. Raphael and St. Andrews, in the diocese of Alexandria, and especially to the Very Rev. Geo. Corbett, V. G. That the work was not delayed indefinitely by reason of the illness of the writer is due to the indefatigable labors of Mr. James O Hagan, who, in addition to work of publication, had charge of the whole matter for more than two months.
